

Please add my comments against this item. We enjoy not receiving the phone calls that are currently being blocked by the Indiana law and would not like this changed. We used to receive 5 to 10 calls a week which were not worth answering. If we need to contact any company that we currently do business with, we can without them calling us to promote their services or products.